Windsor, October 8.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Inverneſs, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Dupplin.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Town-Council, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Inverneſs, with all humble Gratitude, acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Condeſcenſion and Goodneſs in communicating to the Repreſentatives of Your People in Parliament, the Terms on which the general Peace may be made.

Your Majeſty, whoſe undoubted Prerogative it is to make Peace and War, hath fill'd the Hearts of us, Your loyal Subjects, with inexpreſſible Joy, on the moſt agreeable Proſpect of an approaching Peace; and That upon ſuch Terms as we hope will make Your Subjects ample Satisfaction for the Burdens they have undergone during the whole courſe of the War.

Your Majeſty, to our great Satisfaction, hath ſufficiently ſecured the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and, to our no ſmall Encouragement and Comfort, has enlarged our Trade, by extending it to Coaſts it never yet had reach'd.

As we deteſt and abhor all thoſe Levelling, Republick Principles which have ſometimes proved fatal both to Church and State; ſo we cannot fail to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will not be wanting in our Endeavours and Duty, to obviate, to our utmoſt Power, the Deſigns of any evil Minded Perſons who may attempt to ſow Sedition among Your Subjects, and, under ſpecious Pretences, carry on Deſigns they dare not Own.

May the God of Peace grant, that in a long and quiet Reign, Glorious to Your Self, and Happy to Us, Your Majeſty may long enjoy the Fruits of an honourable Peace, after ſo ſucceſsful a War, is the ſincere Prayer of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the County of Montgomery, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Pughe, Eſq; in the abſence of Edward Vaughan, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, and other Gentlemen of the County of Montgomery.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

WE make bold, with the greateſt Humility, to approach Your Majeſty's Throne, to thank Your Majeſty for Your gracious Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms which Your Majeſty has, by Your great Wiſdom, brought France to accept, ſuch Terms that none but they who delight in War and Miſchief can object to; and farther, to ſatisfie the Enemies of the Government (if ſuch there can be) that France is ſincere in their preſent Negotiations, Your Majeſty has got into Your Poſſeſſion one of the ſtrongeſt Fortreſſes they had, which muſt of courſe make the Trade of Great Britain to Flouriſh.

We unanimouſly own it to be Your Majeſty's undoubted Right to make Peace and War; which Right we will ſupport and defend with our Lives and Fortunes; and as a Teſtimony of the Truth of what we here ſay, we will always chuſe ſuch Repreſentatives (as we do not doubt but we have at preſent) who will likewiſe ſupport and defend the Prerogative of the Crown.

We cannot too much admire Your Majeſty's great Judgment in the Choice of Your Miniſtry; a Miniſtry true and faithful to Your Majeſty's Commands and Service, and to Your Majeſty's Government both in Church and State, as by Law Eſtabliſhed.

That God would give the greateſt Bleſſings to Your Majeſty both here and hereafter, as ever were given to any Prince upon the Face of the Earth, are the hearty and ſincere Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and moſt Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the ſeveral Corporations of Montgomery, Llanidloes, Pool, and Llanvylling, in the County of Montgomery, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Pughe, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Paliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ſeveral Corporations of Montgomery, Llanidloes, Pool, and Llanvylling, in the County of Montgomery.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt obedient Subjects do, with the greateſt Humility and Thankfulneſs, acknowledge the gracious Condeſcenſion of Your Sacred Majeſty (whoſe undoubted Prerogative it is to make Peace and War) in communicating to Your Parliament, the happy Effects of Your Royal Endeavours for reſtoring the Tranquility of Europe.

Your Majeſty's Juſtice and Honour in obtaining a proper and reaſonable Satisfaction for Your Allies in the Treaty of Peace, are equally conſpicuous with Your Goodneſs and Compaſſion, in aſſiſting them during the War, and ought as much to engage their Gratitude, as it adds a new Luſtre to Your Glory: Your tender Care of the Trade and Intereſt of Your People, is a manifeſt Proof of Your affectionate Concern for them, which excites in all loyal Hearts a dutiful Zeal for Your Majeſty's Service: And the ſure Pledge given by France, of the ſincere Performance of her Stipulations, muſt ſilence the ſenſeleſs Clamours, and falſify the ſpecious Pretences of Envy Abroad, and Faction at Home.

While we contemplate, with Pleaſure, Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom, in the direction of ſo nice and difficult an Affair; 'tis but juſt to applaud the ſteady application of Your truly faithful and able Miniſtry: A Miniſtry, who by a peculiar Felicity of Genius, have given ſuch ſurprizing Turns to the artful and inveterate Oppoſitions they met with, as happily terminated in promoting that Publick Good, which wicked and ambitious Men conſpired to obſtruct.

May Your Majeſty ſoon perfect the great Work You have ſo auſpiciouſly carried on, and recompence the Calamities of an expenſive War, with the ſeaſonable exchange of a glorious Peace; a Bleſſing which Your Majeſty's long Life and propitious Reign can only compleat, to the Joy of all good Men, and utter Diſappointment of their Deſigns, who envy our Proſperity, or hate our Conſtitution.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Florence, Sept. 13. N. S. Laſt Week a Feſtival, in Honour of Pope Pius V. lately Canonized at Rome, was celebrated at St. Lawrence's Church with great Solemnity. The Grand Duke, attended by the Nobility, and moſt of the Foreign Miniſters, was preſent at the Ceremony, which laſted three Days. The Church was hung throughout with rich Hangings; there was a fine Compoſition of Muſick, and an Oration on the Occaſion, ſpoken by Canonico Mozzi. At Night the Guns round the Forts were fir'd, the Dome of the Cathedral was illuminated, and variety of Fire-works appear'd in ſeveral Quarters of the Town.

Genoa, Sept. 18. N. S. On Wedneſday laſt Her Majeſty's Ships the Cornwall, Mary, and Lion arrived here from Leghorn, where they took Aboard Proviſions and Stores. Laſt Night the Lion ſet Sail for Port Mahon, and the other two intend to depart as ſoon as the Britiſh Letters come in, if they are not prevented by bad Weather.

Hamburgh, Octob. 7. N. S. Letters from the Muſcovite Camp ſay, the Czar had appointed the Firſt of this Month to make an Attack upon the Iſle of Rugen. We are aſſur'd that the Swedes have landed 9000 Men in the ſaid Iſland, and that King Staniſlaus has made his Entry at Stralſund, under a triple diſcharge of the Cannon. The Duke of Wolfenbuttle has acquainted his States, that finding himſelf grown Old, he is reſolved to paſs the reſt of his Days in Quiet, for which reaſon he will reſign the Government to the Hereditary Prince, his eldeſt Son, reſerving to himſelf a yearly Penſion of One hundred thouſand Crowns. It is believed he intends to retire to Rome.

Hague, October 11. N. S. The States of Holland were aſſembled laſt Friday and Saturday, and diſpos'd of ſeveral Military Employments. This Day they met again, and are to continue Sitting all this Week. Yeſterday in the Evening an Expreſs arrived here from Brigadier Carris, Commandant of Oſtend, with advice, That notice being given him what a ſlender Garriſon the Enemy had in Fort Knock, on the 4th Inſtant, he detach'd 180 Men thither, under the Command of the Partizan de Rue, who, after having fetch'd a compaſs round the Country, found means to hide themſelves in ſome Peaſants Houſes, from whence they came out at Six in the Morning: And when the Gates of the Fort were opened, they took that Opportunity to ruſh in, and
